 - d. Public Hearing (required by law or ordinance)
 - e. Communications _
 - f Reports
 - g. Committee Reports
 - h. Other Scheduled Matters
6. Unscheduled Matters: An item that is not listed on the agenda for the current meeting may be discussed during the session at the discretion of the Council. However, the purpose of such discussion should be to decide whether or not to schedule the item for discussion and vote on a subsequent agenda; as a general rule no matter of significant interest to the public should be decided upon by the Council without prior notice to the public as a scheduled agenda item of the Council.

7. Adjournment

B. The order of business may be adjusted by consent of the Council. _

Section 1-6 Rules of Council Debate

A. Council debate shall proceed in accordance with the following rules:

1. Every member desiring to speak shall address the presiding officer, and upon recognition, shall confine himself/herself to the question under debate, avoiding abusive and indecorous language.

2. A member, once recognized, shall not be interrupted when speaking unless it is to call him to order, or as herein otherwise provided. If a member, while speaking is called to order, she/he shall cease speaking until the question of order be determined, and, if in order, he/she shall be permitted to proceed.

3. Order of rotation in matters of debate or discussion shall be at the discretion of the presiding officer. _

4. A motion to reconsider any action taken by the Council, may be made only on the day such action was taken or at the next meeting of the Council. Such a motion shall be made by a member of the prevailing side, but may be seconded by any member, it shall be debatable and requires a simple majority for adoption.

5. Any member of the Council who has an interest as defined by the laws of the State of Montana (Title 2, Chapter 2, MCA) or as advised by the Town Attorney shall not participate in the debate nor vote in that matter nor seek to influence the vote of members of the Council. Any Council member attempting to so participate may be censored by a majority vote of the remaining members of the City Council. ("Censored" is defined as a formal resolution of the legislative body reprimanding a member for specified conduct. It is an official reprimand or condemnation.)

6. If the presiding officer of the council has an interest as defined by the Code of Ethics previously adopted or as established by the laws of the State of Montana or as advised by the Town Attorney, he shall additionally yield the chair to a member of the Council during the course of debate and decision concerning the issue in which he has an interest.

7. After a motion, duly made and seconded, by the Council, no person shall address the Council without first securing the permission of the presiding officer.

Section 1-7 Presentation to the Council (Not a Public Hearing)

A. The general manner in which the Council handles items other than public hearings shall be as follows:

1. The presiding officer presents the item to the Council along with a brief summary of the matter for discussion, with or without recommendation.
2. For purpose of clarification, Council Members, after recognition by the presiding officer, may direct questions to the presiding officer or staff member.
3. Upon recognition by the presiding officer, the Council will hear comments from the applicant.
4. After recognition by the presiding officer, Council members may direct questions to the applicant.
5. Members of the audience will be invited to present testimony beginning with those in favor of the proposal.
6. All testimony shall be directed to the presiding officer.
7. The Council may, upon a proper motion and second, vote on the matter at hand or table the matter until a date certain.

Section 1-8 Public Hearing

A. The Council may conduct public hearings or may appoint a hearing officer for that purpose as provided in Section 7-1-4131, MCA. The Council shall wait at least one week but not longer than the next regular council meeting before making a decision unless this rule upon motion and second is unanimously waived by the Council. In addition, when public hearings and public interest matters are being heard and it is anticipated that a large number of citizens may wish to present testimony, the presiding officer, with the consent of the Council, may, prior to the meeting, establish reasonable guidelines for the conduct of the meeting.

B. Witnesses may be required to testify under oath and all testimony shall be directed to the presiding officer.

C. The Council shall not be bound by the strict rules of evidence, but may exclude irrelevant, immaterial, incompetent, or unduly repetitious testimony or evidence. The presiding officer shall, with advice from the City Attorney, rule on all questions relating to the admissibility of testimony or evidence. The ruling of the presiding officer may be overruled by a majority vote of the Council.

D. The proponents or opponents, their agent or attorney, may submit petitions and letters during or prior to the closing of the hearing and the same shall be entered by reference into the minutes and considered as other testimony received at the hearing.

E. Following the presentation of all comments, testimony and evidence, the Council; may continue the hearing to a date certain to allow additional information to be submitted to the Council as a body on any unresolved issues; close the public hearing and proceed to Council debate of the matter; or continue the Council debate and vote to a date certain. A public hearing, which has been formally closed, may not be reopened. If additional information is required before a decision can be made, the Council, upon motion duly made, seconded and passed, may call for an additional public hearing which hearing shall be duly noticed, specifying date, time, place and subject matter of the hearing.

Section 1-9 Addressing the Council

A. The public is invited to speak on any item under discussion by the Council after recognition by the presiding officer. The speaker should step to the lectern or front of the room and, for the record, give his/her name and address and, if applicable, the person, firm, or organization he/she represents. Prepared statements are welcomed and should be given to the Clerk of the Council. Prepared statements that are also read, however, shall be deemed unduly repetitious. All prepared statements shall become a part of the hearing record.

B. While the Council is in session, the members must preserve order and decorum.

A member shall not delay or interrupt the proceedings or the peace of the Council nor disturb any member while speaking or refuse to obey the orders of the Council or its presiding officer. The presiding officer shall forthwith bar any person making personal, impertinent or slanderous remarks or who shall become boisterous or disruptive during the Council meeting from further presentation to the Council, unless permission to continue be granted by a majority vote of the Council.

Section 1-10 Ordinances and Resolutions

A. All ordinances and resolutions shall be prepared or reviewed by the Town Attorney. No ordinance or resolution shall be prepared for presentation to the Council unless ordered by a majority vote of the Council or requested by the Mayor.

B. The ordinances and resolutions shall, before presentation to the Council, be approved as to form and legality by the City Attorney and shall have been examined by the Mayor who may refer it for comment to the head of the department under whose jurisdiction the subject matter of the ordinance or resolution is to be administered.

C. Ordinances and resolutions must be introduced by a member of the Town Council or the Mayor. A draft of the proposed ordinance or resolution shall be presented to the Council for review and comment with the public being notified of the proposed action and invited to make comment. If the Council approves the draft ordinance, it shall then be placed on the agenda for first reading and provisional adoption, with second reading and final adoption occurring at least twelve (12) days after the first reading and provisional adoption. After being provisionally adopted, the ordinance shall be posted in a conspicuous place in Town Hall and copies thereof shall be available to the public from the Clerk of the Council. The reading of the ordinance's title and number shall be sufficient to constitute a reading and an actual oral pronouncement of each word contained therein of the proposed ordinance or resolution is not required and shall be waived unless required by a majority vote of the Town Council. All ordinances, except emergency ordinances, shall become effective thirty (30) days after the second reading and final adoption. All resolutions and emergency ordinances shall become effective immediately or at the time indicated therein.

This Ordinance shall become effective thirty (30) days after final passage by the City Council and approved by the Mayor.
